

Catholic Schools Week

January 5, 2009

Dear Parents:

Our Catholic Schools Week festivities begin on Sunday, January 25; part of a nationwide celebration of the ways Catholic Schools' keeps the faith in a proof-driven world. Please, join us day-by-day as we focus on our nation, our parish, our community, our faculty and our students. Help us celebrate our Catholic Schools!

- Monday, January 26 Catholic Schools: Celebrate Service in a community of believers
Students will be encouraged to write letters to their parents thanking them for the opportunity to attend a Catholic School. On behalf of Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic School, we extend our appreciation to those parents whose sacrifice and help make possible the educational process of our school. We salute all of those individuals in our community who unify our community of believers.
Open House -- 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
- Tuesday, January 27 Catholic Schools: Celebrate Service in Education in every student
Teachers will let their students know how much they, the teachers, appreciate them, the students. We want our students to share in the limelight. We want to let them know that we believe in them, in their varied talents and in their abilities to achieve.
- Wednesday, January 28 Catholic Schools: Celebrate Service in Education in a proof-driven world
Catholic education is the single most effective way to transmit our faith to the succeeding generations. That is something to celebrate. Catholic Schools, as part of the parish, play a major role in keeping the Catholic faith alive in this world. We thank our Pastor, Fr. Juan M. Lopez, Fr. Juan Luis Sanchez, Msgr. Xavier Morras and Fr. Biain.
Catholic Schools Week Mass at 8:35 a.m. (Gr. 1-8)
- Thursday, January 29 Catholic Schools: Celebrate Service in Education in the life of our faculty and staff
Catholic Schools Week recognizes our teachers, whose dedication, enthusiasm and innovations truly make Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic School, give us a reason to celebrate. We encourage our students to honor their teachers.
- Friday, January 30 Catholic Schools: Celebrate Service in our Nation
National Appreciation Day focuses the entire country's attention on our educational network and its benefit to society.

In brief and again, we are proud to state: “Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic School: Celebrate Service in Education”

Sincerely,

Carlota E. Morales, Ed.D.
Principal